One Night the Moon

ONE HOUR DRAMA

Director: Rachel Perkins

Music Arts Dance Films

In 1932, a young girl went missing in the Australian outback...

One night, in the Australian outback in the early 1930s, a young girl (MEMPHIS KELLY) steps out of her bedroom window - entranced by the beautiful, beaming moon. When her parents go to check on their sleeping child, she is nowhere to be found.

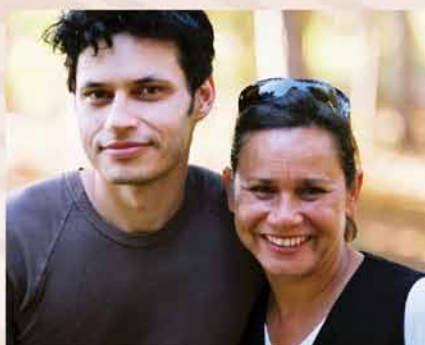

ONE NIGHT THE MOON is based on the true story of Aboriginal Tracker Riley in Dubbo in the 1930s, who was awarded the King's Medal for his services to the Police Force. His grandson, Michael Riley, directed the documentary Black Tracker in 1997, which became the inspiration for ONE NIGHT THE MOON.

A SISTER'S LOVE

ONE HOUR DOCUMENTARY
BY IVAN SEN

Behind her smile, arts presenter and cultural communicator, Rhoda Roberts has had to deal with family turmoil, bigotry and the murder of her twin sister. A SISTER'S LOVE will be an observational, reflective documentary film featuring Rhoda Roberts.

We will follow Rhoda and her family on a road trip home to Lismore, in northern

NSW. She is to open a modest plaque in a Nimbin park. It is to commemorate the life of her twin sister, Lois, who went missing in 1998. Her remains were found in an isolated but beautiful part of her Bundjalung homeland. She had been brutally murdered. Her skull was never found and the perpetrator never caught.
