

VIBE AUSTRALIA PRESENTS

THE DEADLYS 2007

MUSIC

The past 12 months have seen Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people accomplishing some truly amazing things. Now's your chance to show them how proud you are by nominating your favourite achievers for one of Indigenous Australia's greatest accolades – a Deadly Award.

The Deadly Awards celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander achievement in music, sport, entertainment and the arts, health, education and community leadership. Sure, we're facing some tough times at the moment, but the Deadlys is a chance for all of us to come together and celebrate the many things that make our community great.

Most Promising New Talent in Music

- Shauntaii Batzke
- Patrick Davies
- Shaz Lane
- Radical Son

Single of the Year

- Brown Bird* - Nabarlek Band
- Are You With Me Out There?* - Brothablack
- How 'Bout Never* - Sharnee Fenwick
- Your Love is Like a Song* - Dan Sultan

Album of the Year

- Cannot Buy My Soul* - Kev Carmody
- Manmoyl Radio* - Nabarlek Band
- Waiting Road* - Shellie Morris
- Hope* - Kutcha Edwards

Band of the Year

- Nabarlek Band
- Black Image
- Max Judo
- Yillia

Artist of the Year

- William Barton
- Troy Cassar-Daley
- Jessica Mauboy
- Dan Sultan

Tick your choice in each category. Remember: ONE choice only per category.

SPORTS

Most Promising New Talent

- Kurtley Beale - Rugby Union
- Robbie Crowther - Athletics
- Nathan Jawai - Basketball
- Dale Richards - Surfing

Outstanding Achievement in AFL

- Shaun Burgoyne
- Lance Franklin
- Andrew McLeod
- Danyle Pearce

Outstanding Achievement in Rugby League

- Greg Inglis
- David Peachey
- Scott Prince
- Johnathan Thurston

Female Sportsperson of Year

- Kirby Bentley - Netball
- Rohanee Cox - Basketball
- Bo de la Cruz - Touch Football
- Leah Torzyn - Netball

Male Sportsperson of Year

- Patrick Mills - Basketball
- Anthony Mundine - Boxing
- Chad Reed - Supercross
- Joshua Ross - Athletics

PREPARATION BEFORE READING

The Deadly Awards are presented each year to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander achievement in music, sport, entertainment and the arts, health, education and community leadership.

People from all over Australia come together at the Deadlys to celebrate the many things that make our community great.

This year, the Deadlys will be held on September 27 at the Opera House Sydney.

ACTIVITY 1: READ THE DEADLYS 2007 PAGE 16

1. Who have been nominated this year for the Most Promising New Talent in music?

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____

2. Which category has the single Are You With Me Out There? by Brothablack been nominated in?

3. Kev Carmody's CD Cannot Buy My Soul has been nominated as Album of the Year.

TRUE FALSE

4. Which four sports are represented in the Most Promising New Talent category?

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____

5. How many choices can you make in each category when you vote?

ACTIVITY 2: COLOUR IN THE BUBBLE TO SHOW YOUR ANSWER.

1. How many music categories are there?

- 5
- 4
- 2

2. The Deadlys celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander achievement.

- True
- False

3. Which word is spelt correctly ?

- community
- comunity

4. Order these events from 1 to 3 in each box to show your answer.

- This year's Deadlys will be held in Sydney on September 27, 2007.
- The first Deadlys were held in 1995.
- Sharnee Fenwick won the Deadly for Most Promising New Talent in music in 2006.

ACTIVITY 3: WHO WOULD YOU VOTE FOR?

Look through the nominations for music and sport and say why you would choose one of these outstanding achievers to win a Deadly award.

Category _____

My Vote goes to _____ because _____

FURTHER READING

Why not make your vote for the Deadlys count?

Vote online now by heading to: deadlys.vibe.com.au