Following is a passage taken from the article on the recent National Indigenous 3 on 3 Basketball and Hip-Hop Challenge. (Page 19) Use capital letters where necessary. Check your work against the article.

the national indigenous 3 on 3 basketball and hip-hop challenge was a huge success when it hit the south australian town of murray bridge for the first time in 2002. this time around, the vibe crew headed across the border straight from Mildura for the first-ever back to back '3 on 3' tour.

shannon 'brothablack' williams, who supervises the hip-hop element of the event and has travelled to communities around australia promoting breaking and hip-hop, says the level of break-dancing skills at murray bridge was exceptional.

vibe sends out a special thanks to kevin kropinyeri jnr and his team who worked so tirelessly in the lead-up to the event to ensure that the people of murray bridge experienced a great weekend. thanks kevin.
